

Buena Vista Water Storage District has an immediate opening for the following position:

Maintenance II<sup>2,3</sup>

Under general supervision, positions in this classification perform general labor work in the maintenance, operation, construction, and repair of District facilities including but not limited to pipeline and canal appurtenance work in trenches and other confined spaces. Under general supervision, positions in this classification may operate heavy power-driven construction and maintenance equipment and participate in the work of water distribution and tailwater collection system maintenance and construction crews. Generally, holds one or multiple certificates/licenses such as Class A, Hazardous Materials, Hydro Crane Operator, Chemical Applicator, etc. Also provides training for Trainee and Maintenance I position.

1. Job classification – Regular (Hourly) Employee
  2. Designated as “Safety-Sensitive.” Employee’s designated as “Safety-Sensitive” are so designated because they hold a position in which their normal scope of duties require the employee to operate or work around heavy equipment; involves work with natural gas, hazardous material, or electricity; and those positions in which the employee’s performance, reflexes, and/or judgment impact the safety of others or which require work on or around District facilities where an accident or mistake in judgment can result in great bodily harm or death.
- Compensation $15-$22 / Hr DOE
  - Applications can be picked up at the District Office located at 525 N Main Street, Buttonwillow, CA 93206
    - Or email administrator@bvh2o.com to request a pdf application.
  - Applications accepted until position is filled